

A Prayer for Cabrini House of Hospitality

God of grace and mercy,
thank you for your wondrous creation,
for all the beauty, goodness, and blessing
that surrounds us.

Thank you for your love poured out on all people—
the love that gives us joy and lifts us up when life is hard,
the love that forms us as your beloved.

Bless Cabrini House of Hospitality, through which we gather women in prayer, shared living, and service.

Help those who live there grow in holiness.

Help them become women of love and mercy.

May the community that surrounds them
and supports them in prayer
be blessed by your presence
in this house, this neighborhood, this city.

You, O God, are goodness itself.

You hold us always in your loving kindness.

May we follow you with grateful hearts as we pray
in the name of Jesus your Son. Amen.
